

MARK GOODGER

FINEST ANTIQUE BOXES & ACCESSORIES

DECORATION, FUNCTION, INVESTMENT

Tortoiseshell tea caddy with beautiful mother of pearl inlay of birds and flowers. English, Circa 1815

French Art Deco Clock by famous manufacturers Hour Lavigne. This striking 20s clock has a very heavy body made of marble. Circa 1930

Tete d'Epervier (hawk's head) rare amber colour, Model No. #1139. With moulded relief "R Laliq" near base. French, Circa 1928

Hukin & Heath Liqueur Set with a small silver topped decanter and six silver handled shot glasses. English, Circa 1900

Chinese Lacquer Export Games Box, octagonal-shaped with a rolled top, standing on four carved winged dragon feet. Chinese, Circa 1830

Art Deco Jacques Adnet two bottle Tantalus with silver-plate handle and coromandel shagreen dotted base. French, Circa 1920

Country House solid Oak Letterbox. With a brass letter slot and glazed viewing window in the lockable door. English, Circa 1900

Jaeger-LeCoultre atmos clock in a polished gold plate finish. With atmospheric movement that does not require winding. Switzerland, Circa 1970

Betjemann & Son feathered Walnut Games Compendium with brass straps and mounted black Agates. English, Circa 1875

Aquarium silver plated "half-giant" sized table cigarette lighter by Alfred Dunhill. Reg No. 737418. English, Circa 1950

Tortoiseshell Tea Caddy with exquisite pressed Architectural panels with pagoda top and a bombe shaped sides. English, Circa 1815

Mahogany Duke of York Apothecary Cabinet containing 15 glass bottles, many of which contain their original contents. English, Circa 1800

Swiza Rolls Royce desk clock, Nickel-plated brass Spirit of Ecstasy on a hinged base over a Swiza clock. Model number 33. English, Circa 1970

Antique Squash Tea Caddy with a beautiful colour and patination. Topped with a realistic stalk. Germany, Circa 1800

Beautiful pair of elliptical Georgian Satinwood Tea Caddies with symmetrical floral inlays on the top. English, Circa 1790

Outstanding Sarcophagus shaped antique Coromandel Sewing box adorned with exquisite engraved Mother of Pearl inlays. English, Circa 1830

Feathered Walnut Decanter Box by George Betjemann & Son. With four sherry glasses, four tumblers, two spirit decanters and a beautifully shaped claret decanter. Circa 1880

If any of these carefully selected pieces are of interest please don't hesitate to get in touch.

www.markgoodger.co.uk
sales@markgoodger.co.uk

Tel: +44 (0)1604 863979

Mob: +44 (0)7779 654879

